

HANGING GARDENS OF BALI

OVERVIEW

The Spa at Hanging Gardens of Bali overlooks the waterfalls of the holy Ayung River, embracing the sights and sounds of nature, while offering a unique range of luxurious treatments using all-natural, organic ingredients, many of them grown on our own estate.

Our spa villas all open up to the jungle with stunning picture windows of jungle greenery and a soundscape of chattering birds and monkeys. Each has twin treatment beds, a huge divan for your traditional pre-treatment foot-wash, and, separated by an antique wooden shutter, a bathroom with a rain shower and an open-air bath.

The Spa uses only specially selected indigenous, all-natural ingredients that are hand-picked from our own estate and the surrounding countryside, including avocado, ginger and cocoa:

- Avocado is known for its miraculous health and beauty benefits, naturally loaded with a myriad of vital nutrients including vitamins, minerals, proteins, fibres and beneficial phytochemicals, and used for treating a range of health and skincare problems
- Ginger has a long tradition of alleviating symptoms of gastrointestinal distress and numerous therapeutic properties, including antioxidant and anti-inflammatory effects
- Amongst many benefits, cocoa has immune stimulating effects, helps oxygenate the brain and promotes detoxification of industrial chemicals in the body.

Our spa team take special pride in their welcome ritual, designed to blissfully start your spa experience:

- ice-cool Rosella tea - natural sweetness and sourness to quench your thirst and soothe the throat, high in vitamins and anti-oxidants to detoxify by reducing blood pressure, blood sugar, cholesterol and uric acid
- peppermint and eucalyptus face towel – refreshing and cooling after the balmy Balinese weather
- refreshing spring water foot bath with organic sea salt rich in minerals and therapeutic for joints and muscles and fresh lime for cleansing and relaxation

After your treatment you will be served a warming ginger herbal tea to soothe the stomach and aid digestion.

All treatments can be taken solo or as a couple, and can be held in The Spa or

- In the privacy of your villa beside your pool in your own bale
- At the exhilarating setting of our deck, down beside the river
- Beside our famous swimming pool, voted #1 in the world by both Trip Advisor and Condé Nast Traveller
